ABOUT US

THE LOW DOWN ON THE HOUSE DYE

The House Dye is lovingly hand dyed by Mark (Jamo) Jamieson. Based in South Australia, our brand is a major contributor to sales in the shop owned by Jamo & Mat, (The Skien Machine). It has proved itself to be a market success.

Since October 2025 we have incorporated Blackwattle Original colourways into our range. These colours are favorites with many customers and a fabulous addition to our brand and to continue the great legacy of Blackwattle Colours.

We pride ourselves on quality and consistency. Our most popular bases have been picked to be suitable for knitters and crocheters alike.

We are also proud of where we come from, all our base ranges are named after South Australian wine regions. Another great South Australian export!

Jamo lives to dye. Creating new colourways and coming up with new ways to colour the yarn to give exceptional results.

We hope you enjoy our brand as much as we do!
